Presidents Corner

Happy New Year Cedar Valley Woodworkers! I'm Lynn Barnes the CVWA newest president for 2026. Since taking High School Shop classes and UNI, I've been a wood enthusiast. In 2017, I retired from the Bosch Power Tool Company. I'm always amazed at the talent & craftsmanship shown by our creative woodworkers during the Show & Tell time at monthly meetings. Even with advanced experience, I'm still learning the craft & techniques from kindred CVWA members! I want to thank past president John Gilbert for all the hard work and dedication that John successfully provided the club this past year. We have grown both in numbers and strength financially in 2025. I want to thank the Executive Board members for providing assistance in showing the ropes to me on how the club operates day to day; so we all enjoy woodworking in the Cedar Valley and be here for good.

Local artist Shelly Anderson of Arizona Gourds.com as our January speaker, who works in non-wood media. She will demonstrate her talents and craftsmanship at our next meeting. Our February speaker, is local artist Candace Warby, of "Whimsical Twist", a window & wall paint muralist that can paint entire pictures and letters on hard surfaces with a creative artistic twist. We look forward to hearing from both of them.

Our new Woodworking Challenge will be announced at the January Meeting. Since we all use a table saw for most of our wood projects; our next challenge will be a "Table saw Push stick." More on that at the January meeting.

The annual membership dues are $35.00. Guests are always welcome. We meet on the second Tuesday of the month at 6:30 at the Waterloo Center for the Arts. The Executive Board is continually working to provide program speakers for our monthly meetings and finding places to tour. If you have ideas for speakers or tours let me or one of the board members know. Happy Woodworking! See you at next meeting January 13th!
