Presidents Corner

February weather did not allow us to safely have our Feb 12 meeting.

Remember when CF / Waterloo Schools are closed, we will not have our monthly meeting that evening. Luckily Hugh Wiedemann agreed to move his presentation to our June 11 meeting

Here is our upcoming meeting speaker plans:

March 12 -Lyndal Anthony Dubuque, IA turning bowls, plates, specialties

April 9 -Joan Overhouse Dubuque, IA pyrography-Artistic & geometric designs in wood

May 14 -Dean Schmitt demonstration of his Legacy Ornamental Mill*

Jun 11 -Hugh Weidemann (Janesville, IA) furniture refurbishing/restoration

July 9 - ????

Aug 13 – Dave Campbell (Des Moines). He is editor of Wood Magazine. Presentation subject to be determined.

 I looked on-line and found a site that shows Legacy Ornamental Mills. <https://lwmcnc.com/cnc-mills/past-models/ornamental-mills/>

The board approved an incentive to increase readership of the CVWA's on-line newsletter. Jim Wikle will be placing a clue in the newsletter for you to find. When you enter the next meeting, please place your "discovered clue" and your name on the provided slip of paper. Place it in the appropriate bucket. There will be a drawing for a small gift. Jim stated that the clues will start easy and will then become more difficult.

Per last month's note, we will ask each of you for your approval to have information on our sponsor discounts. Steve Robb and Dave Turner will have more details at our March 12 meeting.

Show and Tell

Many of us do projects that are too large to bring to meetings. I would like to set up a monthly PowerPoint to show your larger projects. We can project these "non-portable projects" during our Show and Tell session.

Keith Bailey sent me a great show and tell idea: Please bring one of your earliest wood projects. Tell us about it's history.

The Cedar Falls Exchange Club is holding its Spring Craft and Vendor Show. It will be Saturday April 13 and Sunday April 14. Times on both days are: 10:00 am – 3:00 pm. If you would like to have a booth, to sell your products, please see me for an entry form. Or write me at

New Business:

Idea for 'Show & Tell':

Challenges:

See the attached sheet for the various categories. The projects can be completed anytime throughout the year. They are not assigned for a specific month.

When a project is made using one of the wood disks, from Dave Turner, please indicate your project used one or more of the wood disks from Dave.

If your project is too large to easily bring into the meeting, please give photos of your project to Steve Crouse. Steve will make a Power Point presentation for the members to see your project.

'Then & Now' – Bring in one of your very 1st projects and a similar project that you have recently completed.

Request to Price Tools and Wood – we received a call from Connie Castle, 1711 Bertch Avenue, phone 319.427.3467, asking for help pricing a basement and garage full of tools from her late husband. Since most of those 'pricing' jobs end up being multiple days, it was suggested that a donation of a minimum of $100.00 be made to the club. An announcement will be made to membership that they are having a tool sale. Gene Knief, Reed Craft & Dave Turner will contact her.

'Exchange Club' Craft Show – we were notified of their upcoming show on April 13th & 14th in Thunder ridge Mall in Cedar Falls. As a club we will not participate but will let our members know of the event.

Tours – Possible ideas to be mentioned at general meeting, to see if there is interest:

Newsletter 'Hidden Clue:'

1st clue will appear in the newsletter the following month after the announcement to the membership at the General Meeting.

The members who find and can answer the 'Hidden Clue,' will write their name and the solution on a form at the registration desk and place it into the 'Hidden Clue' bucket.

Reed Craft will make the label for the bucket.

Steve Crouse will make the entry forms.

The box of 3 router bits that has one with a small 'ding' in it will be offered to the general membership for $25.00.
